

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 18-CR-204

LONNIE MIXON,
also known as "Peanut,"

Defendant.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION ON DEFENDANT'S CHANGE OF PLEA

The United States of America and the defendant, Lonnie Mixon, appeared before me on January 14, 2019, for a change of plea colloquy pursuant to Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. See Court Minutes for Change of Plea Hearing, ECF No. 32. Mr. Mixon, who was represented by counsel at the hearing, consented to my conducting the plea colloquy. I explained that it would be for United States District Judge J.P. Stadtmueller alone, not me, to enter the plea and that my role was to conduct the plea colloquy and then to prepare a report and recommendation for ultimate disposition by Judge Stadtmueller.

After Mr. Mixon was placed under oath and advised as to the implications of being untruthful, I questioned him about his competency to go forward with the hearing. Through his responses, I found that Mr. Mixon was lucid, intelligent, and not under the influence of any intoxicants or substances.

I then discussed in detail each of the subjects specified in Rule 11, including the rights Mr. Mixon would surrender by entering a plea of guilty, the maximum penalties associated with the offenses included in the Plea Agreement, ECF No. 26, and the authority of the sentencing judge to disregard any recommendations in the Agreement, and to sentence Mr. Mixon at the statutory maximums. Mr. Mixon fully understood the rights he was surrendering and the implications of pleading guilty. Mr. Mixon also was satisfied that he had received effective assistance of counsel.

At the conclusion of this colloquy, I determined that the guilty plea was knowing and voluntary and was not induced by threats or by promises not contained in the Plea Agreement. I found that there was an independent factual basis containing each of the essential elements of Counts One, Two, and Six of the Indictment, ECF No. 7, to which Mr. Mixon was pleading guilty. Mr. Mixon advised that he was pleading guilty to those offenses because he was, in fact, guilty and that the United States could prove beyond a reasonable doubt that he was guilty of them. Finally, I found that, in responding to my questions, Mr. Mixon was candid, respectful, and non-evasive, fully accepting responsibility for and acknowledging the unlawfulness of his conduct.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RECOMMENDED that defendant Lonnie Mixon's plea of guilty be accepted; that a presentence investigation and report be prepared according to the schedule set by the Court; and that Mr. Mixon be adjudicated guilty and have sentence imposed accordingly.

Your attention is directed to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and (C), Fed. R. Crim. P. 59(b), and E.D. Wis. Gen. L. R. 72(c), whereby written objections to any recommendation herein, or part thereof, may be filed within fourteen days of service of this Recommendation. Objections are to be filed in accordance with the Eastern District of Wisconsin's electronic case filing procedures. Failure to file a timely objection with Judge Stadtmueller shall result in a waiver of your right to appeal. If no response or reply will be filed, please notify Judge Stadtmueller in writing.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this 16th day of January, 2019.
